He said;
"Forgive me
for being a dreamer."

She said,
"Forgive me for not being here sooner to dream with you."
